

TRANSGENDER PERSONS PARTICIPATING POLICY

Golf Canada believes in and is committed to diversity, inclusion and gender equity among its competitors. As participation in Golf Canada Championships provides golfers a unique and positively powerful experience, the goal of this policy is to create opportunity for transgender golfers to participate in accordance with their gender identity while maintaining the relative balance of competitive equity within our events.

Guiding Principles:

Golf Canada will utilize the following principles to guide its decision-making process in accordance with this policy:

The implementation and administration of this policy will consider a fair and equitable level of monitoring that is respectful, inclusive and respects a person's human rights.

Definitions:

- a) Golfer - any individual who seeks to participate as a player in any of Golf Canada's events.
- b) Transgender - refers to an individual who has been assigned one gender (male or female) at birth, but identifies with the other gender.
- c) Transgender Female - someone who was born with a male body, but who identifies as a girl or a woman and who is being treated for gender reassignment.
- d) Transgender Male - someone who was born with a female body, but who identifies as a boy or a man and who is being treated for gender reassignment.
- e) Gender reassignment - a medically-supervised program of treatment to change a person's body to align with their gender identity, through hormone therapy and/or surgery.
- f) Medical Practitioner - a person licensed to practice medicine in Canada, who has obtained a medical school diploma ("MD"), and is registered with the Physicians Credentials Registry of Canada.
- g) Gender Review Sub-Committee - is a sub-committee of the Amateur Competitions committee and is made up of Golf Canada's Director of Rules, Competition and Amateur Status, the Chair of the Golf Canada Amateur Championships Committee, Golf Canada's Chief Sport Officer and the Chair of the Golf Canada Sport Development Committee.

The following policy clarifies participation of a transgender Golfer in an event. For purposes of this Policy, any reference to an "event" refers to a Golf Canada Championship event, including any practice round(s).

Eligibility:

A Golfer will be eligible to participate in an event, provided that they participate;

- a) Under their birth gender,

OR

- b) For individuals who have undergone gender reassignment before puberty the following guidelines will be used:
 - I. Individuals undergoing gender reassignment of male-to-female shall be regarded as female.
 - II. Individuals undergoing gender reassignment of female-to-male shall be regarded as male

OR

- c) For individuals who have undergone gender reassignment after puberty, the following guidelines will be used:
 - I. Male-to-female transgendered persons, to compete as a female, must submit documentation from a medical practitioner that gender reassignment has been ongoing for at least one year.
